Did you find the Shared Visions Discussion valuable?

yes - process, stumbled a bit

1st transition \rightarrow suggestion \rightarrow collecting individual ideas
then narrow into collective ideas & THEN attempt a headline & group vision using map was great to get more active real life involvement

Need more time for process

Were there any questions you had which were not answered at the workshop? If so, what are they?

Overall, how would you rate this community workshop?

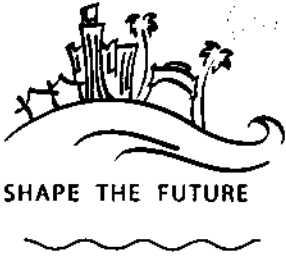

very good process
needs more time
(just a bit)

Are there any suggestions you have for future workshops?

maps - include as much detail for landmarks etc to make visualizing very easy since there's limited time to "get a vision!"

Did you find the Shared Visions Discussion valuable?

yes. I would prefer that the facilitators didn't feed the catch phrases to the lay-citizens. It would be a more wanted result if people used their own words (not "sustainability" "smart growth" and so on)

no

Did you find the Issues Discussion valuable?

Well thought out and illustrated stations. I enjoyed reading the ~~opportunity~~ comments of others as I added my own ideas. Great input.

Did you find the Shared Visions Discussion valuable?

Enjoyed discussion with group and sharing issues.

Were there any questions you had which were not answered at the workshop? If so, what are they?

What outside rules govern our future? Why must we keep an airport very few of our residents use? Why has the state dictated an increase in housing?

Overall, how would you rate this community workshop?

Very positive and well-organized. Everyone had a chance to share ideas.

Are there any suggestions you have for future workshops?
